The Style of a "Dorothy Dodd"

The woman whose capacity for style exceeds her capacity in dollars will find that the style of a "Dorothy Dodd" Shoe gives her foot all the distinction of a custom-measured shoe. "The style of a 'Dorothy Dodd'" has become proverbial. It is a Shoe that preserves the natural outlines of the foot, yet actually makes it look a full size smaller. No other shoe is designed like it. When your foot is tired don't put on a slipper, but put on a "Dorothy Dodd." It hugs the foot around the instep and rests every other part of it. It saves fifty per cent in foot fatigue.

CHILD'S PATHETIC LETTER.

She Appeals to the Treasury to Redeem a Dollar Bill.

There are many pathetic appeals for help in the daily mail received at the treasury department in Washington.

but a letter the other day from a little girl brought tears to the eyes of the old clerk whose duty it was to open and read it. It was from a little girl and was as follows:

Dear Mr. Treasurer--I enclose you will find a very old dollar bill which my papa gave me when he died. It is the first he ever made when he first went into the dental business. He told me to keep it until I got hard up and needed it.

Papa has been dead two years. I need it very much now. I took it to the bank, and they said it was too old, but papa once told me all United States money could be exchanged at Washington. Papa was all through the treasury about four years ago with mamma. Maybe you met papa. He was a thirty-third degree Mason.

We had lots of money then, but papa was sick two years and Artie was sick two years, and it took nearly all our money. So now I must send this to you to exchange for a new dollar bill, as I need it. Poor papa would feel so bad if he knew we were in need of that dollar. It is not too old for you to exchange, is it? Now, goodbye. From LITTLE

A new bill was sent in exchange, and there was a hint that something else went with it.

THRONE LIGHTS.

The Prince and Princess of Wales are the possessors of nineteen pianos, every one of which was a wedding present.

Prince Ludwig Ferdinand of Bavaria, a cousin of King Otto, who has passed his examination as a doctor and who works in the Women's hospital at Munich, has thus found an outlet for his energies.

The German empress has the most magnificent diamonds, which she wears on great occasions at court. They are valued at a quarter of a million sterling, but most of them are heirlooms of the Prussian crown.

These jewels can be worn only by a reigning queen, and a dowager is unable to make use of them.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank all friends and neighbors for the many kindnesses shown us in our bereavement at the loss of our eldest daughter.

GRANITEVILLE.

The ladies of Graniteville and vicinity will be glad to learn that Mrs. Belle Batchelder will have a sale of trimmed hats tomorrow at E. N. Aldrich's general store.

Upstairs.

At night, your silverware may be safe from midnight marauders, but did you ever think of outside dangers, both day and night?

You wouldn't think of buying a poor furnace, you would suffer too much, but you buy a poor hose that doesn't half water the lawn, a poor clothes line that breaks; little matters compared with house painting, which costs so much and is so often unsatisfactory.

Did you ever realize that you lose more by applying poor paint, which cracks and peels and necessitates repainting every other season, than is lost in a life time through robbers?

Is it not time to use an honest paint, such as The Colonial? Sold by C. A. Heath in Barre.
